NEAR SIGHTED PEOPLE.

A New York Optician Explains the Causes of and Gives Remedies for Myopia.

"In no other city in the world can be found so many people afflicted with myopia or near sightedness as right here in New York," said a Broadway optician a few days since.

"Do what do you attribute the prevalence of this partial blindness?"

"Near sightedness arises from a number of causes, chief among which are reading in the dusk of the evening, or fatiguing the eyes in trying to read by aid of a bad artificial illumination; reading while in a lying position, or with the head thrust too far forward; the perusing of hurried or slovenly printed books, or matter printed in a very small type. All these and many other things conduce to a gradual decrease in the power of vision, and if not greatly persisted in will finally end in the total destruction of the sight."

"The principal cause of the prevalence of short sightedness (among our business men at least), is the pernicious habit so largely indulged in of reading newspapers while riding in the surface cars or omnibuses. The jolting or swaying motion of the car or bus causes an unsteadiness of hand, which makes the type appear blurred and uncertain. These factors easy motion of the cars on the elevated roads has done much toward the prevalence of the present of those who find that they must read while en route and who patronize the aerial mode of transit."

"When does one become conscious of failing visual power?" was asked.

"One first begins to discover that he is losing his keenness of vision when the signs along the streets and distant objects are not easily discernible without a painful straining and extension of the pupil. When one is convinced that his eyesight is failing him he should not delay a moment before consulting an oculist."

"Is not near sightedness sometimes hereditary?"

"I believe hereditary influence to be of great effect in causing short sight. I have known large families, whose members, from the youngest to the oldest, were afflicted with weak eyes or a too short range of vision. The sight can be preserved and prevented from growing poorer only by the use of proper glasses at the proper time. A dangerous mistake no one makes is that of wearing glasses which are either too weak or what is worse, too strong for the requirement of the eye."

Large and Small Mistakes.

As a Scottish minister and an English lawyer were riding together, said the minister to his friend, "Sir, do you ever make mistakes in your pleading?"

"I do," said the lawyer.

"And what do you do with your mistakes?"

"Why, sir, I argue ones, I mend them; if small ones, I let them go. And, pray, sir, do you ever make mistakes in preaching?"

"Ah, sir, I have done so."

"And what do you do with your mistakes?"

"Oh, I dispense with them in the same manner as ye do yours. I rectify the large, an' let go the small ones. No laug since, an' I was preachin' I meant to oblige the devil was the father o' a' liars, but made a mistake, an' said he was the father o' a' lawyers. But the mistake was so small that I let it go."

Origin of "Counting Out" Rhymes.

I hold that "counting out" is a survival of the practice of the sorcerer, using this word in its restricted and etymological meaning; and that the spoken and written charms originally used to enforce a sorcerer's power have become adjuncts to these puerile games, and the basis of counting out doggerels.

The idea that European and American children engaged in "counting out" for games are repeating from that age and when the practices and language of a sorcerer of a dark age is perhaps startling, but can be shown to have a high degree of probability.

The leader, in counting out, performs an incantation, but the children grouped around him are free from that awe and superstitious reverence that characterized the procedure in its earlier state—Journal of American Folk-Lore.

A WALL STREET BEAR.

A MONETARY BALMAGUNDI.

Addison Cammuck's Fabian Policy in Stock Campaigns—Rooms of Millionaires That Cost a Fortune To Furnish

—The Famous Bill Travers and His Methods.

(Copyright 1893.)

"There is a monkey and parrot time ahead for those who believe in higher prices for stocks," said Addison Cammuck, now one of the most prominent stock operators.

His opinion is of no special importance;

he is quite likely to be wrong as right,

and yet Wall Street now closely watches his movements and listens to his words

as it might to an oracle. He is the successor of "Baron" Wertheimer who suggested a medicinal rather than the stock market of Germany.

properties which he had sold in advance at his own valuation—in other words a persistent and almost chronic "bear."

Cammuck, or "Cam," as he is familiarly called, is, however, of a very different temperament. There is nothing of the soldier in his composition; he is an adept at running the war between the "bulls" and the "bears" during the war trading with New-York, and he sails into the market now like one of the old raskish-looking war blockade steamers painted gray and setting well down in the water, stealing past the Union gun-boats and men-of-war in a Southern harbor, and on a dark night seizes a cargo of cotton worth a thousand dollars a bale, and then with lights out and amid a death-like stillness creeping out again at three o'clock in the morning past the frowning port holes of the francis tropical merchant.

Cammuck never shows fight; he never has the pluck to enter the Southern ranks and carry a musket—he would rather, if he generally understood, run the blockade; he carries no guns; he puts on the full suit and takes to his heels at the first sign of a superior man-of-war that might blow him out of the water. In other words if he finds he is on the losing side

he runs at once.

He tries the stock market as a boy would try the ice on a skating pond to see whether it will bear; he tests the market by putting his foot on it. If it will stand he will bear it. If it will not stand he will "short" the market. He takes the other stock. If the ice breaks he pounds it until it is deep on the "bear" side. It was as a bear that he made a large part of his fortune of six or seven millions. Such an operator thinks very little of carrying fifty thousand shares of stock.

He is a large man with large square features which do not usually relax into a smile unless the value of other people's property is falling. He is in middle life and was a bachelor until a year or two ago when he married a young wife. He is very brusque in his manners, and is therefore not generally liked. One of the strange stories told about him is that he once lent Jay Gould two million dollars without a scrap of paper as security, and that Mr. Gould returned the money. I do not know whether this is true or not.

is often enormous. The average are not

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Personal.

C. M. Reed, and daughter, Miss Mary E. Reed, will arrive this evening from Corning, N. Y., to visit his sister, Mrs. Judge Leavitt, whom he has not seen for thirty-four years.

Mrs. G. Hill, of Lodi, who has been visiting Mrs. Joe A. Brown, left for home yesterday morning, with health greatly improved.

THE "CRAWFORD PLAN."—The Republican Primary Election will take place on September 8th, in accordance with the State Law. For the first time in Mono county it will be held under the "Crawford Plan." This is a direct vote for candidates instead of delegates to a convention, thus enabling voters to be honestly represented when the ballot is deposited. Every voter has an opportunity to make his choice in an unobscured and effective manner, without the intervention of delegates. The workings of the system are plain and simple. In this instance candidates deposit with the Secretary $10 and a written pledge to support the nominees, on or before August 18th, at which time the Central Committee will consider the list reported by the Secretary, prepare and order tickets with the names of the candidates printed thereon; said tickets to be held by the Committee of the several precincts until the day of election. On September 8th, the election will take place between the hours of 1 and 8 p. m., and voters will scratch the names they do not wish to vote. On September 15th, returns will be canvassed and the result declared, a plurality of votes nominating. Under the State Law none but Republicans are qualified to vote or participate at this election.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY.—The Republican Central Committee met at Bodie on the 7th instant, and transacted the following business: A primary election for the nomination of candidates was ordered to be held on Saturday, September 8th, between the hours of 1 and 8 p. m., in accordance with the provisions of the Primary Election Law. Candidates, excepting township officers and Central Committee, are to deposit, on or before August 18th, with the Secretary, $10 and a written pledge to support the nominees. The Committee will meet on August 18th, to order tickets, and on September 15th, to canvass the returns and declare the nominees. Wilson Butler, A. F. Hector and W. H. Vinton were appointed Delegates to the State Convention. In another column will be found the Election Proclamation.

QUARTZ MILL BURNED.—The Diana & Wai Wai quartz mill near Benton, was discovered to be on fire in the roof at between one two o'clock on the morning of Sunday, the 1st inst., and was entirely consumed. It was a five-stamper and belonged to J. F. Miller, of Benton. The loss was about $20,000, of which $5,000 is covered by insurance. The mill had been successfully running, and its loss will be seriously felt in the southern end of our county.

WILL LECTURE.—Supervisor A. F. Hector will lecture to the people of Bodie in Miners' Union Hall on Thursday evening next. Mr. Hector lectured in the Court House here on the evening of April 3d to a large house, all present passing a pleasant evening, and we bespeak for Mr. Hector an appreciative Bodie audience.

REMEMBER THIS.—Those contemplating becoming citizens of this great American Republic must remember that they must do so before the 6th of August, or they will not be able to vote in November, as the law requires one to be naturalized 90 days before being entitled to vote.

MONTE CRISTO MINES.—The five Applications of the Monte Cristo Con. Mining Company for United States Patents will be published next week. The group comprises the Bull Pine, General Grant, Livingston, Monte Cristo and P & C mines.

TO CANDIDATES.—The available advertising space of this paper being engaged for the ensuing two months for legal and mining business, only one line will be given to announcements.

NEW CITIZENS.—Judge Hakes has admitted to citizenship Thomas Cain and James Burnes, natives of Canada; and James Watson, native of Scotland.

NEW DESKS.—This morning our School Trustees purchased of Mr. Barum, of Stockton, several large desks and seats, which our school has long needed.

HAYING.—The farmers around Mono Lake are cutting their hay crop, which is as good as usual.

GEIGER ROAD.—The Geiger Road to Bodie is in good order.

Over three columns of new advertisements crowd out local and general news this week.
